

Topics December 2024

Extension of the deadline for submitting social security contribution forms and payments through the electronic system (e-Payment).

The Cabinet has approved the draft announcement from the Ministry of Labor to extend the deadline for submitting social security contribution forms and payments through the electronic system (e-Payment) by an additional 7 business days after the 15th of the month following the deduction of contributions (e.g., for contributions deducted in January 2025, the deadline would normally be 15 February 2025, but under this draft announcement, the deadline would be extended to 25 February 2025). The current enforcement period will end in December 2024. This extension will apply for an additional 60 months, , starting from January B.E.2568 (2025) to December B.E.2572 (2029), effective from 1st January B.E. 2568 (2025) onwards.

(Reference from the topic of January 2022)